Funeral of F. L. McChesney.

There was a large crowd of sympathizing friends present at the Second Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, to attend the funeral of the Hon. F. L. McChesney, who passed away Tuesday morning. The services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive, assisted by Ccl. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, who had been a life-long friend of the deceased. The remarks of Col. Young were a loving and beautiful tribute to one he considered the best and truest of friends. He said he had been for years trying to pay the deceased for a kindness he did for him in years gone by, and had now come to mingle his tears with those that loved him best. He was laid away in the Paris cemetery, his grave being covered with many beautiful floral offerings. The pallbearers were: E. P. Clarke, C. J. Clarke, Pearce Paton, Chas. E. Butler, E. M. Costello, George R. Bell. See extended notice elsewhere in this issue.

Something Beautiful.

The ladies are invited to call and inspect the beautiful line of art pictures and genuine hand-painted china now on display at the Paris Book Store. 1f

A Swell Affair.

About thirty-five hundred people visited the handsome new department store of Harry Simon Wednesday, the occasion being the grand opening of his new building. Mr. Simon is certainly to be congratulated on the magnificent success of this occasion. His new store is not only one of the finest in the State but reminds one of the beautiful establishments in cities ten times the size of Paris.

The store was artistically decorated by T. J. Wysser with golden rod, ferns, palms, autumn leaves, bowls of cut flowers and American beauty roses. Wholesale dealers in Cincinnati, Chicago and New York sent handsome cut flower designs in the shape of hearts and horseshoes.

The opening of Mr. Simon was on a scale of splendor seldom witnessed in the larger cities of the east, and places Paris in the front rank of Central Kentucky cities as the leader of variety, quality and fashion.

Mr. Simon was assisted in receiving the public by Mrs. Simon, who has no superior in knowing the wants of the ladies of the Blue Grass, by Miss McCullough, the artistic hat designer and trimmer, expert cutters and fitters in the ready-to-wear garment department, Mr. George Kriener in the shoe department and by a large force of clerks.

Among the many features of the Simon department store is the fur exhibit which is the most varied and attractive ever seen in the city.

The conveniences of the Simon store makes it a pleasure for ladies from the country to visit and Mr. Simon desires to extend to the ladies of Bourbon and adjoining counties a cordial invitation to visit his establishment.
